DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 61-83 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. No basis is seen for the phrase "free of hydrogen peroxide stabilizers" in claims 61 and 81.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 61-83 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin '458 in view of Gomori '955.

The claims are rejected for the reasons of record as to their corresponding claims cited in the last office action. Claims 61 and 81 now require that the solution is "free of hydrogen peroxide (HP) stabilizers". Martin '458 discloses a method of treating without stabilizers 9col. 2, lines 60-73). Gomori discloses the addition of silver salt to a hydrogen peroxide solution as before, but uses stabilizers. However, in their prior art section, the reference discloses that compositions which contain only HP and silver (col. 1, lines 61-70). Gomori is to an improvement which contains stabilizers. Therefore, it would have been obvious to not use stabilizers if the product did not need to be stable as shown by the reference to Martin '458.

Claims corresponding to the previously rejected claims 28-42, 50-53, 44-46, 54, 58, 59 and 60 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin as applied to the above claims, and further in view of Dalmasso et al. '667.

The claims are rejected for the reasons of record cited in the last office action.

Response to Amendment

Applicant's arguments filed 7-18-03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue that Gomori teaches the use of an organic stabilizer which is not now required. However, the reference to Gomori discloses that it is known to use HP without stabilizers.

Applicants argue that Dalmasso does not teach the claimed amount of HP vapor concentration and in particular does not teach enough to inhibit premature rooting. However, particular amounts are seen as being within the skill of the ordinary worker depending on what is being treated. The discovery of an optimum value of a result effective variable is ordinarily within the skill of the art. In re Boesch, 617 F.2d 272, 276, 205 USPQ 215, 219 (CCPA 1980). In developing a disinfecting product, properties such as disinfecting are important. It appears that the precise ingredients as well as their proportions affect the preservation, germination, rooting and blossoming of the product, and thus are result effective variables which one of ordinary skill in the art would routinely optimize.

Applicants argue that Dalmasso does not teach micro -droplets. However, no limitation has been pointed to as to the size of micro droplets or that their size is critical.

Arguments as to the restriction are moot as applicant has submitted new claims, but they are correct that all the claims were addressed, so that further remarks were not necessary as to the restriction.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
